

With a loop of wire Gus hooked a spring balance to the spring in the breaker arm. "Look closely," he said, "and you'll see that the balance reads about eighteen ounces."